

JOHNSTOWN NOSTALGIA ART SERIES

The Tribune-Democrat and Johnstown Magazine have commissioned local artist Mark Parrish to begin a Johnstown Nostalgia Art Series that will become a treasured collection for anyone who loves Johnstown.

ART SERIES

Read All About It!

Mark Parrish is a celebrated sketch artist whose works have appeared on display locally and were featured in The Tribune-Democrat.

Mark will use his mastery of color-pencils to resurrect the Johnstown of yesteryear and bring it back to life in a colorful and vibrant way. You simply must own this collection.

The first piece is on sale now. "Read All About It!" portrays The Johnstown Tribune building in the 1950s and brings us back to that time.

Other works by other artists will follow. Whether you're a genuine art lover or you just love Johnstown, you simply must own this series.
